Volume 6: Issue #7

November seems to be flying by! Thanksgiving is less than two weeks away. We are off to a good start in quarter 2. We expect Q1 report cards to be handed out next week.

Our fall sports season is just about complete. Good luck to our girls soccer team in the state quarterfinals this afternoon and to Justin Cascio who runs in the New England XC Championships tomorrow. Our football team has two games remaining and celebrates senior day tomorrow.

We are also excited to highlight our music and theater programs over the next month. The Region 10 Players will be performing “Middletown” on November 19th, 20th and 21st. The show is recommended for ages 11 and over. Tickets can be purchased using this link: <https://www.onthestage.tickets/show/region-10-players/middletown-71139>

Our band and chorus students are also in the final stages of preparing their performances coming up in early December.

Our in-person parent conferences went really well this past week. We wrap up our annual fall conference sessions with a virtual evening next Wednesday. For parents who signed up, Zoom links will be sent out early next week.

Athletic Information

The fall sports season is almost finished. Here is a final update on our teams:

Boys Cross-Country – Congrats on a very solid 8th place finish at the Class M Championships. I also want to highlight the incredible finish to the season for senior Justin Cascio. Justin finished 2nd in the Class M race, 13th in the entire state at the State Open, and is racing tomorrow up in Vermont in the New England Championships. Just an unbelievable season by Justin!

Girls Cross-Country – Finished 12th at the Class M Championships. The top runner this year was 10th grader Ginny Mullen who finished 27th in the final race.

Boys Soccer – Qualified for the State Tournament and lost to a talented Ellington team in a close game this past Tuesday.

Girls Soccer – Had a big 5-1 victory over Plainville in the 1st round of the tournament on Monday followed by a huge upset of #1 seed Nonnewaug on Wednesday. Plays in the Class M Quarterfinals this afternoon against Granby.

Girls Volleyball – Finished the season with a 6-14 record. Very strong last few games.

Football – The team is 3-5 headed into tomorrow's senior day against Northwest Catholic. Come out and support the team. Festivities start at 11:30 with the game starting at noon. LSM students and Veterans can get into the game for free. Just check in at the entrance!

Field Hockey – Had a great finish to the regular season. Lost in the first round of the Class S tournament in overtime to Sacred Heart Academy.

Boys Golf – Finished 7th in the Division II State Championships.
Congratulations on a very good season.

Cheerleading – Come out and celebrate with our senior cheerleaders before the football game tomorrow.

Unified Soccer – Finished off their season with a final tournament this week.

Crew – A lot of success last Sunday in their final race of the fall in Farmington. One highlight was a first place finish by the Varsity Boys team.

I hope November is going well!

Stay Safe,
