

LSM High School Headlines

January 21, 2022

Volume 6: Issue #12

Semester 2 is off to a great start! All students with new semester classes started them this week. Look for Quarter 2 and Semester 1 grades to be finalized next week.

Students have also started the course selection process for next year. Everyone in grades 9, 10, and 11 received their new program of studies this week and started building their schedules based on teacher recommendations. We encourage all families to have conversations about what next year will look like.

Our winter sports teams have hit mid-season. A complete update can be found below.

Hopefully the weather will cooperate as we move through a four week stretch leading up to a few days off later in February.

We continue to focus on our Covid protocols. Thanks to all students and families for working with our mask guidelines and monitoring each day to make sure anyone with symptoms stays home to keep our community healthy.

Here are some important dates to be aware of. Do not hesitate to contact the school at 860-673-0423 if you have any questions or need more information.

February 18th – No School for Students – PD Day for teachers

February 21st and 22nd – No School – Presidents Day/Winter Break

Some Additional Details:

Project Graduation: Hello Region 10 parents! Did you know the Class of 2022 has a committee for Project Graduation? Each year, a team of senior parents come together to fundraise for their senior class - to provide an alcohol-free and substance-free event known as Project Graduation!

This year's first fundraiser, between now and February 28, 2022, is with Pampered Chef! There is a Facebook "party" group set up (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/778240790245045>) or you can order directly through the site (<https://www.pamperedchef.com/party/lsmg2022>) - 15% of the sales will be donated to Project Graduation for the Class of 2022.

In addition, we're accepting donations in various forms (monetary, services, products) from individuals and businesses to be used for the event itself (payment for the location, food, entertainment, etc.), at the event (as prizes for our seniors), or for upcoming fundraisers (including the Community Raffle). The attachments provided will explain better. Jan Project Graduation Class of 2022 SENIOR PARENT LETTER \(1\).pdf Jan Project Graduation Class of 2022 BUSINESS LETTER.pdf

On behalf of the Project Graduation Committee for the Class of 2022, we appreciate and thank you for your support.

Yearbook: You can still purchase a 2021-2022 yearbook. There is a link at the bottom of the LSM webpage. Remember, there is a limited number of books, and we don't want you to miss out. Also, parent ads are a nice way for you to add memories in the yearbook. There is a link at the bottom of the LSM webpage. Use the link to purchase your ad.

Athletic Information

Spectator Update: As of now we continue to limit spectators to family members only. We are hoping to get students back in the stands during the first week of February. We will let everyone know once a change is confirmed.

Our winter sports teams are heading towards mid-season. Below is an update on their early results:

Boys Basketball: Now 2-5 with an away game tonight.

Girls Basketball: Coming off a win on Tuesday night. Currently 4-5 with games tonight and tomorrow.

Boys Ice Hockey: A 5-5 record heading into a game tomorrow night.

Girls Ice Hockey: A solid 5-2-2 record with a game tonight and Sunday.

Swimming and Diving: A lot of success in their first two meets with another this afternoon.

Indoor Track: Getting ready for CCC and state championships. Several school records broken already, including the 55 hurdles, several distance events and the 4x200 relay.

Cheerleading: Getting ready for several upcoming competitions!

Unified Sports: Enjoying the weekly basketball practices.

Hopefully things will start to settle down as we wrap up January and head into February.

Stay Safe,

Chris Rau

Principal
